Governor Crist names appointments to PCHA Board

PINELLAS COUNTY, FLORIDA – Today, Governor Crist announced two reappointments and new appointment to the Pinellas County Housing Authority (PCHA) Board of Commissioners.

PCHA's chairman, Joseph M. Triolo, 52, of St. Petersburg, rehabilitation officer with the City of St. Petersburg Housing and Community Development, was reappointed for a term beginning March 12, 2010, and ending January 21, 2014.

Current Commissioner Cynthia M. Wilson, 73, of Dunedin, retired, was also reappointed for a term beginning March 12, 2010, and ending December 9, 2013.

PCHA welcomes Alan L. Swartz, 51, of Pinellas Park, certified public accountant with Swartz and Company P.A., to the Board of Commissioners. He was appointed for a term beginning March 12, 2010, and ending January 10, 2011.

PCHA provides housing and rental assistance to a total of more than 4,200 families in Pinellas County. The authority is proud to be rated by HUD as a "High Performing" agency. For more information about the authority's programs and the board, please visit www.pin-cha.org
