PCHA receives Family Self Sufficiency Grant!

HUD has awarded the Pinellas County Housing Authority the Housing Choice Voucher Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) Program grant. The grant will allow PCHA to work with welfare agencies, schools, businesses, and other local partners to develop a comprehensive program to help participating individuals develop the skills and experience to enable them to obtain jobs that pay a living wage.

PCHA's Executive Director Debbie Johnson says, "We're really excited about getting this much needed program up and running."

About Pinellas County Housing Authority (PCHA):

Formed in 1965 and governed by a five member Board of Commissioners appointed by the Governor of the State of Florida, the Pinellas County Housing Authority (PCHA) provides housing and rental assistance to a total of more than 4,500 families in Pinellas County. The authority is proud to be rated by HUD as a "High Performing" agency. More information about the authority's programs and services can be found at www.pin-cha.org.
